GARDEN GROVE, Calif. (June 15, 2022) — The Roman Catholic Diocese of Orange is pleased to announce the inaugural Marian Days celebration, a two-day event on July 1 and 2 that is expected to draw thousands of the faithful from around the region and country to the Christ Cathedral campus for Masses, processions, workshops, rallies, worship, dancing, food and entertainment.

Marian Days, themed as “With Mary, Giving Thanks to God,” will feature a festival-like environment and guest speakers for youth and adult parishioners on topics such as catechesis, education, theology, Mariology, prayer and liturgy. There will also be an informational booth area with representatives from various Diocese of Orange parishes, ministries and other Dioceses.

“It is with great joy and excitement that the Diocese of Orange and Christ Cathedral host our first-ever Marian Days, which we hope will become an annual tradition for Catholics throughout our Diocese and our region,” said Bishop Thanh Thai Nguyen. “Throughout our celebration, we will keep in our hearts the theme of ‘With Mary, Giving Thanks to God,’ for we continually give thanks for the gift of life, the gift of parish family and Diocese community, and the gift of faith. As we approach the Fourth of July, we will especially partake in the gift of our country’s religious freedom.”

Members of the media are invited to visit the campus on June 22 at 9 a.m., in advance of Marian Days, to hear Bishop Nguyen and others talk about the two-day event and its inspiration. The presentation will include a visit to the Our Lady of La Vang Shrine. Interview opportunities will be made available.

Members of the media are asked to RSVP by contacting Bradley Zint, assistant director of communications, at bzint@rcbo.org or (714) 282-6052.

Marian Days background

The Diocese of Orange's celebration was inspired and modeled after the annual Marian Days of Carthage, Missouri. That pilgrimage-style festival has been in place since 1978, drawing tens of thousands of attendees, particularly Vietnamese Catholics, to the Midwest to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Orange County's Marian Days will include a focus on the cathedral's Our Lady of La Vang Shrine, which was blessed before a crowd of more than 8,500 in July 2021. The nearly $13-million shrine's centerpiece is a 12-foot-tall Virgin Mary statue depicting how the Blessed Mother is believed to have appeared before a group of persecuted Vietnamese Catholics in 1798 in a rainforest of Vietnam.

The shrine, which is still being completed in phases, has been a major source of reverence, joy and inspiration to visitors of the Christ Cathedral campus since its blessing. The shrine hosts monthly Masses and other observances, particularly for Orange County's large Vietnamese Catholic community.

"With Mary, we are grateful to God for His gifts, especially the Our Lady of La Vang Shrine that has drawn many pilgrims to visit this holy site throughout the past year," Bishop Nguyen said.

Added Bishop Kevin Vann, "Marian Days will offer all Catholics an opportunity to come together, to walk in the Marian procession while praying the Holy Rosary around the cathedral campus, and to participate in Masses with the bishops of the Diocese of Orange. Our Catholic community will truly walk together in faith through the keynote addresses, participating in adoration and confession in Christ Cathedral, listening to Christian musical performances, enjoying our beautiful campus art and visiting the magnificent Our Lady of La Vang Shrine."

Event breakdown

For The celebration begins at 6 p.m. on July 1, with a drum group and 250 singers performing before the opening Mass in front of the Our Lady of La Vang Shrine. Bishop Timothy Freyer will be the celebrant. Concurrently, there will be a teen session featuring songs, cheers and preaching elsewhere on the campus.

By 9 p.m., the first of several youth adult events will begin, and it will include a candlelight procession to the Our Lady of La Vang Shrine.

On July 2, the day begins with an 8 a.m. Mass inside Christ Cathedral, with Bishop Thanh Thai Nguyen as the main celebrant. The Mass includes a 100-person choir.

Throughout the day the campus will host various workshops and sessions geared for adults and teens. There will also be a booth area with church representatives, food and live entertainment.

Marian Days continues around 4:30 p.m. on July 2 with a rosary procession. Then, thousands of the faithful will spill out onto the streets around the Christ Cathedral campus, walking a path that ends at the Our Lady of La Vang Shrine.

Once at the shrine, around 6:15 p.m. there will be a prelude and liturgical dance featuring more than 200 dancers, a 500-member choir and orchestra. At 7:30 p.m., Bishop Vann will be the main celebrant of the Mass, with Bishop Nguyen as the homilist. During the Mass, the dates for Marian Days 2023 will be announced.
