
Orange County Catholic Schools Celebrate Discover Catholic Schools Week

Description

Virtual and in-person activities for students, families, parishioners and community members are planned across award-winning Diocese of Orange parochial schools Garden Grove, Calif., (Nov. 9, 2020) — Diocese of Orange Catholic Schools will host a series of special events from Nov. 9-15 for students and parents to mark Discover Catholic Schools Week, a national initiative across dioceses in the U.S. for prospective families. The celebration includes weeklong activities designed to showcase the rich traditions and many benefits of a Catholic education. This year's theme is "Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service." With 36 campus locations, over 16,000 students and teachers representing numerous cities across Southern California, Diocese of Orange Catholic Schools embrace these tenets in a family and faith-based environment. During the week, some schools will be offering in-person tours of their campuses. Other schools will be hosting virtual events and livestreams, including student presentations and webinars. "All are invited to visit, tour, and experience how Diocese of Orange schools educate and inspire young minds spiritually, academically, and in service to others," said Dr. Erin C.O. Barisano, Diocese of Orange superintendent of Catholic schools. "While there are many reasons to choose a Catholic education, some core highlights include the intellectual, moral, and above all, spiritual benefits it provides. We guide each student on their quest for learning to uphold respect of self and the value of service to others in order for them to become good stewards and future leaders." According to National Catholic Education Association (NCEA), the organization that started the annual campaign, there are more than 6,000 Catholic schools serving 2 million students nationwide. These schools—elementary, middle, and secondary—are spread across the country, giving families across the U.S. the opportunity to experience Catholic education. NCEA introduced this 'week' last year as an addition to its Celebrate Catholic Schools Week held every January since 1974. "Discover Catholic Schools Week is also a time to acknowledge all those who worked tirelessly to prepare our schools for safe reopening amidst the COVID-19 pandemic. Because of their efforts our schools opened as scheduled and remain a source of hope in these challenging times," added Barisano. Each school's activities can be found by visiting us online and selecting the school nearest to you. Enrollment for Orange Catholic Schools remains open for all grades and for students of all ethnic, religious, and social backgrounds.
