
'call Me Catholic:' Ewtn's New Weekly Radio Show, Now Airing Live from the Christ Cathedral Studios

Description

Irondale, AL (EWTN) – EWTN Global Catholic Network is pleased to announce its new weekly radio show "Call Me Catholic." Broadcasting from high atop the Tower of Hope on the beautiful Christ Cathedral Campus in Orange County, Calif., "Call Me Catholic" is a light and lively conversation about the blessings and challenges of embracing a Catholic identity in the modern world. This live one-hour show, a co-production of EWTN Radio and Orange County Radio, is hosted by Peggy Normandin and can be heard Saturdays at 1 p.m. ET and 11 p.m. ET on EWTN Radio. The program features high-profile Catholic guests; live callers; commentary on faith in the news and arts; and heartfelt stories about growing up Catholic. Host Peggy Normandin will leave you energized and excited to tell the world, "You can 'Call Me Catholic.'" EWTN Global Catholic Network, in its 35th year, is the largest religious media network in the world. EWTN's 11 networks broadcast the Gospel message in multiple languages 24 hours a day, seven days a week to over 264 million television households in more than 145 countries and territories. Properties include direct broadcast satellite television and radio services; AM & FM radio networks transmitted through SIRIUS/XM, iHeart Radio, and over 500 Catholic domestic and international radio affiliates; a worldwide shortwave radio station; the largest Catholic website in the U.S.; electronic and print news services, including "The National Catholic Register" newspaper, and two global wire services; as well as a publishing arm.
