
Usccb Live Streams Discussion of Pope's Post-synodal Apostolic Exhortation 'amoris Laetitia'

Description

USCCB hosted a media teleconference at 10 a.m. Eastern, on April 8, that was streamed live at:

<http://www.usccb.org/about/leadership/holy-see/francis/apostolic-exhortation-press-conference.cfm>

The archived video of the teleconference is available to view. Participants included: Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz of Louisville, Kentucky, president, U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops Bishop Richard J. Malone of Buffalo, New York, chairman, USCCB Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life and Youth Helen Alvaré, JD, Professor of Law, The Antonin Scalia Law School at George Mason University Moderator: Norma Montenegro Flynn, USCCB Office of Public Affairs Other experts who will not participate in the call but who can be reached for comments through their own media contact, are: Kurt Martens, JCD, Professor of Canon Law, The Catholic University of America John S. Grabowski, Ph.D., Professor of moral theology & ethics, The Catholic University of America. (Media Contact: Elise Italiano italiano@cua.edu) Susan Timoney, STD, Secretary, Pastoral Ministry and Social Concerns, Archdiocese of Washington. (Media Contact: Chieko Noguchi noguchic@adw.org) Rev. Roger Keeler, JCD, Executive Coordinator, Canon Law Society of America.

Date Created

April 8, 2016